Lectio Divina – Venue Change

Mondays, April 11 and 18, 7:00 PM

During the month of April Lectio Divina will meet in the Gould Chapel at 7:00 PM. Lectio is a method of studying Scripture through four specific steps of “R”: “Reading, Responding, Reflecting and letting Rest”. This allows us to gradually let go of our own agendas and open ourselves to what God wants to say to us. All are invited to join in this practice of “divine reading”.

Sunday, May 1 3:00PM

Tri Cities Opera has offered the Binghamton District the opportunity to purchase discounted group tickets for its upcoming opera, "Sweeney Todd". This dark, London musical thriller of murder and revenge will keep you on the edge of your seat, wondering whom Sweeney's next victim will be. We will be attending the May 1, 3:00 PM show at The Forum Theatre. The discount amount will depend on the number of tickets purchased by our group. The brochure and a sign-up sheet has been placed on the table in the back of church. Any questions see Fr. John.

Thank You, Chris!

As many of you know, Chris Yanuzzi, the church secretary, was planning on leaving the position in June as her husband, Gregg, started a job in Buffalo last June. They have now sold their house here and purchased one in Buffalo so is able to join Gregg sooner than anticipated. We thank her for her work here and wish them all the best in their new home.

CHAP – Did You Know?

Did you know that food stamps may not be used to purchase personal hygiene items such as toothpaste, deodorant, soap, or laundry detergent? Items that not many of us could would want to do without? To help meet this need our CHOW pantry houses CHAP, the Community Hygiene Assistance Program. In addition to food, our CHOW clients may choose from an assortment of personal hygiene items. Items always in demand are both laundry and dish detergent and shampoo so if you see any great sales, remember our pantry needs! Thank you for your continued generosity.
